Master Suites

These four fully air-conditioned suites are wrapped in panoramic glass windows. King Size bed (can convert in two singles) contain a private bath, complete with all necessities, plus a shower that has hot water around the clock, a hair dryer, and a basket of 100% fine organic amenities. Luxury Peruvian linens, with a 300 thread count, towels & bathrobe, surrounded by the most fantastic wooden private deck for the upmost of privacy and comfort (50 square meters each).

Expedition Cruise to Pacaya Samiria National Reserve:

Pacaya-Samiria National Reserve is one of the biggest protected areas located in Peru's Amazon region, 200 miles west from Iquitos. The Reserve is a triangular shaped area between the Marañon and Ucayali rivers. These rivers intersect at the northeastern tip of the Reserve, marking the beginning of what is considered the Amazon River proper.

A diverse animal wildlife and more than 300 species of birds live in Pacaya-Samiria, including five of the eight species of Macaw found in Peru.
