Master Suites

Their four spacious master suites are at front of our vessel, king-sized beds, 100% Peruvian cotton sheets, all-cotton towels, bathrobes and the finest organic amenities. A 180° stunning panoramic view, individual reading lights, will be the epitome of calming luxury and enjoyment.

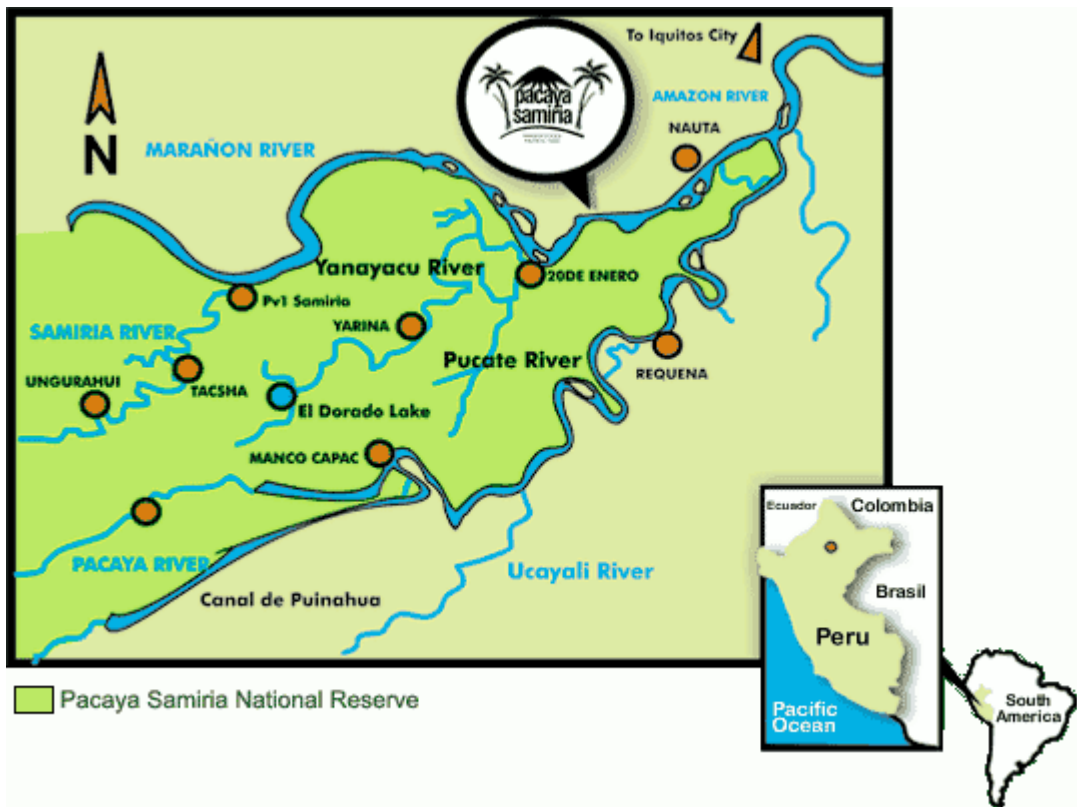

Suites

Their 10 suites have extra large windows that enable you with the most breathtaking views, four of these are interconnected to cater families, designed with casually elegant interiors that create a welcoming and restful environment for those who want to get away from it all, yet enjoying luxurious comfort.

Expedition Cruise to Pacaya Samiria National Reserve:

Pacaya-Samiria National Reserve is one of the biggest protected areas located in Peru's Amazon region, 200 miles west from Iquitos. The Reserve is a triangular shaped area between the Marañon and Ucayali rivers. These rivers intersect at the northeastern tip of the Reserve, marking the beginning of what is considered the Amazon River proper.

A diverse animal wildlife and more than 300 species of birds live in Pacaya-Samiria, including five of the eight species of Macaw found in Peru.
