

Helping communities in PERU

The AYLLU Project

General Information

This project has been designed for those volunteers who are ready to integrate into the school's activities from day one. Volunteers who take part in the Ayllu project will need to have some understanding of the Spanish language but we can always look at different options for you, such as the Chaski Project, or Selva Verde which include Spanish lessons.

We recommend you stay a minimum of two months to gain most of this experience but the length of time is your choice and you can choose to volunteer from weeks to months. Also you can overlap your time of staying in Peru by volunteering in another project location. We will be pleased to organise this for you!

Once you are selected and placed at the school (we aim to match your skills to the needs of the school as closely as possible,) you will be assisting with lessons for at least 15 hours per week. The school arranges your weekly schedule and local teachers will meet, greet and support the new volunteers. Usually the director of the school will coordinate suitable hours so you can organize your time effectively, any extra time given by you is welcomed.

Additionally, those volunteers participating in the Ayllu project can combine their volunteering with optional extra, organized tours as well. At the present moment Inka Magik can organise a unique eco-adventure tour - an Alternative Inca Trail to Machu Picchu through the warm jungle. This Inca trek offers you the advantage of staying in an eco-lodge with a local family whilst exploring the hidden side to the Andean region. You will visit Machu Picchu as well as surrounding Inca sites and enjoy the changing landscapes by travelling on horse, bicycle, train, car and/or by foot.

The Ayllu project also gives the chance for professionals or those on career breaks to put their skills into practice in the local communities. For example, there is often a need for psychologists, social care workers, nurses, project managers, teachers, nutritionists, or other vocational professionals such as mechanics, electricians, carpenters, builders, gardeners, etc.

Teachers from this part of the continent are very creative because they often have to work with minimal resources. They welcome ideas or any suggestions you may have so please feel free to express your opinion and suggestions when necessary.

The schools are currently promoting their own recycling programmes and the creation of compost sites. There is an increasing awareness about human impact on the environment and more help is needed in order to promote and sustain such initiatives.

We welcome ideas from people who feel there is a room for improvement, remember our schools are charitable and depend mostly on donations to run their teaching programmes. We would like to hear from you about your project ideas.

We could even support your own project, coordinating with the Children's Horizon fund. By encouraging self-sufficient programmes, where the schools use their own resources, we will support them to become more independent.

People who work in the schools and the local communities are much appreciated by the locals and they will give you a warm welcome.

Summary

- Free leisure time

Accommodation

We exclusively coordinate with host families who have been chosen by the school director. These families will include you as a member of their family so you will have the opportunity to be introduced to their friends or to go to parties or local events... Peruvians in general are very lively!

They will also tell you about the local area and things to do and see. We understand that volunteers need their own privacy and rest after a busy day in the schools so you will have your own room, unless we inform you otherwise.

Volunteers can choose to live in local hostel accommodation. Inka Magik ensures that certain standards have been met before sending any of our volunteers to a hostel. During your trip around the country, most of the hostels reserved by us offer you breakfast and easy access to local communication, such as the Internet.

Transport

According to the area in which you are volunteering, the types of transportation to get to your school will vary. You could take the bus - often very packed but very cheap, otherwise there are alternative options such as motorcycles taxis or car taxis. Taxis are one of the easiest ways to travel around; taxi drivers also are very helpful about informing you about fares to other places of interest. Remember, your host family can provide you with the best local advice. Generally, volunteering placements will not be located too far from where you will be hosted with your family.

School Activities

You are likely to help out with English lessons, but there are a variety of subjects from Mathematics, Geography and Biology to Arts, Music and Sports, etc. Your input depends on your level of Spanish language, your confidence and enthusiasm but remember that the local teachers are there to support you. There may be opportunities for you to take a more proactive role and develop your own lessons, especially in English once you have gained confidence.

The schools promote student participation in different sporting activities, such as basketball, volleyball, football, as well as gymnastics, such activities encourage students to improve leadership skills, and team work.

You probably might like to show students how to play rugby, cricket, tennis, or any other game you know- your enthusiasm, and knowledge will be always welcome! Be open to different teaching opportunities and methods, in and out of school.

There are times in which volunteers have decided to involve students in art projects. For example, you could create a musical performance, or pantomime play, and let students chose the theme. You will notice the rewards of team work and you will also learn a great deal from the teachers and students yourself.

INKA JUNGLE TRAIL: NEW ALTERNATIVE 4 days and 3 nights ROUTE TO MACHU PICCHU

DESCRIPTION

This is an alternative route that provides adventure for people who want to enjoy a journey filled with stunning landscapes, The Valley of the Convention (Quillabamba.)

The day before your departure a guide will visit you at your accommodation and give you more details of your trip and discuss any questions you might have before travelling the next day.

On the day of your trip private transport will come to collect you at 7.00-7.30am and will aim to leave the city of Cusco at 08:00 am.

We will be travelling for about 1 hour to a location out of Cuzco called, Abra Malaga, which's highest point is 4,350 metres over sea level. From this location we will begin one of the wonderful hikes, alone in a world that has been compared to Coroico in Bolivia.

Supported by the local staff and guides we will be cycling downhill from the highest point using our mountain bikes for about 4 to 5 hours. During this journey you will see the vastness of the valley of the Convention and appreciate the diverse flora and fauna. Our journey will take you into the upper jungle area and visit the Wamanmarka Inca ruins.

We will continue the journey on our bicycles reaching an altitude of 1,430 metres and head towards the town of Santa Maria. You will spend this first day at a family lodge with basic services (accommodation will be shared with other travellers from our own group.) On this town we will have our dinner and a short summary of the day and comments on the trek.

The next day, after breakfast, we will start walking along the river bank, observing animals of the region, e.g. hummingbirds, parrots, other interesting birds, agile centipedes, lizards.

During our walk also we will identify medicinal plants and savour the fruit plantations, such as banana, mango, oranges, tangerines, cocoa, pacay and crops of cocoa and coffee, etc. Then we will go to a little village called

Qellomayo, where we will have lunch, then continue on to the hot springs (hot water with healing properties are also called medicinal water because they cure body aches and are excellent for relaxation of the muscles after a walk like ours.)

After a relaxing bath we will head to the village of Santa Teresa (1,990 metres above sea level) and spend the night in more family-run accommodation within this local community. The walk from Santa Maria to Santa Teresa will take around 6-7 hours.

On the third day we will be walking from Santa Teresa to Aguas Calientes village taking us about 7 hours. During this journey you reach the train station called Hydroelectric, named so because you will see a waterfall which provides electricity to the surroundings villages. When reaching this point you will have the option to take the train you to the town of Aguas Calientes, or keep walking until we reach our final destination.

Most part of our walking will be following the railroad tracks and enjoying the jungle, until we arrive in Aguas Calientes around 17:00 hours.

At our arrival we settled into our respective accommodation.

After a good rest, on the 4th day we will get up very early and walk the Inca citadel of Machu Picchu (2,438 metres over the sea level.) To get to see the first rays of the sun, and the impressive Inca construction. We will have approximately 2 hours of guided tour and after you will have a free time to visit other parts of the Inca citadel.

We suggest you to climb to the summit of the Huaynapicchu (Young Mountain) at 2667 metres over the sea level, since there lies be an impressive view of Machu Picchu.

Finally after a pleasant adventure in the Peruvian jungle you will travel to Ollantaytambo by train and then transferred to a bus to Cusco city.

Please note that the itinerary is subject to change and if you make any additional plans yourself they will be at your expense

Finally, where does your fee go?

At least 10% of your fees will be donated to Children's Horizon to help the local communities.

Charity Donation - Children's Horizon

Our aim is to increase the level of our charity donations by increasing the volunteer participation.
